Steps

1. Discuss with TDS sponsor a date, time and place to conduct the event.
2. Find disposable lunch trays or tray liner for your event.
3. Create template with safe driving messages.
4. Have TDS team decorate lunch tray the day before with provided materials.
5. Greet the students and give a brief explanation about TDS.
6. Remind students about safe driving and encourage teens to avoid distractions while driving.
7. Don't forget to take pictures to send to us, post on social media and your school website!
8. Complete an activity form on t-driver.com under the "Be Involved" tab to earn TDS Cup points. If in Texas, submit affidavit or sign in sheets.

Don't Forget

Goal—Remind students to avoid distractions while driving.

Make it GREAT

- Find downloadable seasonal clip art and images on t-driver.com to add a theme to your event.
- Request "Big Distraction" cell phone suit to make your event more engaging.
- Contact local media to let them know of the impact you're making in your community.
- Was the event successful? Keep it going! Each month, choose a new theme or risk to focus on.
- Create a safe driving template for all risks and put out messaging for a week-long event, like National Teen Safe Driving Week.
