

Safety Messaging – Bulletin Boards

Medium

Planning Hours: 2

Event Hours: 2

Best Time to Conduct: Before or after school, & lunch

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF EVENT – Spread the safety message of your choice during different holidays or traffic safety months, for example; valentine’s day, St. Patricks day, National Teen Driver Safety week, or prom season.

Items Needed

- Paper
- Printer or markers/pens
- Scissors
- Candy (optional) & tape
- TDS volunteers

Steps

1. Set up a time to hand make the safety messages with your volunteers.
2. Come up with safety messaging around the driver risk of your choice. There are tons of facts and statistics on our website, t-driver.com/know-the-risks/.
3. Type up and cut out the messages.
4. Tape candy to the message (optional)
5. Decide on when and where you’ll hand out the safety messages – during lunch, in the mornings at drop offs, or after school placing on people’s car
6. Conduct activity and take pictures to send to us and post on social media and your website.
7. Complete an activity form on t-driver.com for TDS Cup points. If in Texas, submit affidavit or sign in sheets.

Don’t Forget

Goal – spread the message and let people know about your organization

Make it GREAT

- If spreading the message around a certain holiday, like Valentine’s Day, maybe put them on hearts.
- Consider putting the TDS logo and website url on your messages.
- If your team has a social media page, ask them to follow you!
